

Ruth Elaine McBarron, b. July 5, 1903, New York, NY, dau. of Dr. John Duff and Minnie (Adams) McBarron; m. (2) Ruth Power-O'Malley, b. Dec. 15/16, 1907, Bailey's Bay, Bermuda, dau. of Michael and Ruth Yeaton (Stuart) Power-O'Malley. She m. (1) James Warren Bellah and Commander Henry Howie Shufeldt. She descended from the Earl of Moray, from Gabriel duVal Assoc. Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court and secretary of the Treasury under Thomas Jefferson, and from Charles Chauncey, first governor of New Hampshire, granddaughter of Judge Charles E. Stuart of Alexandria, VA. Mr. Whittlesey d. June 6, 1976, New York, NY and is bur. in the Wooster Cemetery, Danbury, CT.

The children by first marriage:

5028 +ANN WHITE, b. June 19, 1931; m. Georges Berthoin.

5029 JOHN GRANVILLE, b. June 16, 1934, New York City; d. December 5, 1964, Santa Clara¹⁰⁰⁰, CA.

Child by second marriage:

5030 MARIETTA, b. Nov. 10, 1952, New York, NY; New School for Social Research, 1975 B.A. Psychology, author specializing in medicine; she has two well received non-fiction books Killer Salt 1979 and Freelance Forever 1982. Also writer of many magazine articles and some fiction novels; dressage competitor; m. Dec. 4, 1982, Mount Washington, MA, Nicolas Courter Osborn, b. Oct. 19, 1946, New York, NY, son of Robert Chesley and Elodie Crane (Courter) Osborn. He is an artist and a former national open Canoe Champion.

3351. Julian Hill Whittlesey (Granville¹⁹³⁶), b. Oct. 27, 1905, Greenwich, CT; partner in Architectural firm Gruzen and Partners, Newark, prominent City Planner and the first winner of the Andrew B. Thomas Award for pioneering architecture; a collection of letters to his wife covering the years 1932-74 was compiled by him and entitled Stepping Stones, On the Paths of Architecture and Planning and Archaeology, which serves as an autobiography of an extraordinary person whose life's travels covered many continents and whose observations of life are most astute and well phrased and documented. As a correspondent, he would rank with the finest of any writers; m. Apr. 23, 1932, New York, NY, Eunice Stoddard Smith, b. Sept. 7, 1907, New York, NY, dau. of Clarence Bishop and Catherine (Cook) Smith.

Their daughter:

5031 PEREGRINE WHITE, b. June 13, 1944, New York, NY; attended Brearley School, graduated 1966 Scripps College, Claremont, CA; M.F.A. 1969 in theatre from Columbia University; m. Dec. 31, 1976, 122 East 65th St. New York, NY, Gerald Freund, b. Oct. 14, 1930, Berlin, Germany, son of Kurt and Annalise (Josephthal) Freund, professor and Dean of Humanities, Hunter College, attended Woodstock Country School and graduated Haverford College, PhD Oxford University; Assoc. Director for Social Sciences, Humanities and Arts, Rockefeller Foundation. No children. He was previously m. to Jane Trask.

3352. Ebenezer White Hill Whittlesey (Granville¹⁹³⁶), b. Mar. 13, 1913, New York, NY; Mayor and City Councilman, Carmel, CA; m. Dec. 29, 1946, Mary Bigland, b. Sept. 7, 1914, Santa Barbara, CA, dau. of Frederick and Dorothy Bigland, graduate Suset School, Monterey High School and Univ. of California at Berkeley, in the late 1940's she was President of the League of Women Voters, Secretary of Board of Directors of Monterey County Symphonic Assoc., Social Worker and old age assistant, d. July 8, 1984.

Their children:

5032 DEBORAH, m. Mr. Sharp, res. Monterey, CA.