May 9, 1958.¹⁰²⁷ Buried Centerbrook Cemetery, Centerbrook, CT Thomas was diagnosed with severe kidney problems while still in his teens but he survived for another 30 years through non-traditional care from Dr. Waldinger of Old Saybrook, CT. During the 1930s and 40s, he worked as a hunting and fishing guide. He was well-known as a Shad fisherman and supplied Shad and Shad roe to stores and restaurants along the lower Connecticut River valley. He was a housing developer and caretaker but his first love was music and as a budding composer he had 5 of his songs copyrighted and they are on file at the Library of Congress. He never married due to his illness and served as the protector for his sister, Beulah at an early age and he later became a father-figure to his nephew James Thomas Hodson.
