

5138. Alice Lucille Clark (Walter L. Clark³⁵⁰⁹), b. July 28, 1910, Boone, IA; m. Dec. 25, 1927, Eugene, OR, Oren Verl Fegles, b. Dec. 1, 1905, Yoncalla, OR, son of Edward Alvin and Jessie (Starr) Fegles. Verl has always been known to his friends and relatives as "Pick" because Fegles rhymes with Pickles (which was shortened to "Pick"). It is said of Pick and Alice that they are instantly likeable, enjoying camping and traveling in their truck-camper, rock collecting and making lamps, clocks and table tops by setting the stones in acrylic. Pick once found a petrified salt-water clam on the top of a low mountain, called Table Rock, Medford, OR. Alice enjoys arts and crafts, making Christmas ornaments (one each) for all the grandchildren and great grandchildren, each year. They are well loved by their family.
